Hey Glen thanks for including me this morning. As you saw I've a little stressed feeling a little alone at times. Grant says he's been here for most of the action but other than Thursday afternoon for a few minutes and a phone call for cya after he got in trouble for that family photo, I have had no contact with him. Minister Sawhney has been my confidante. Anyway, thanks again and thanks to Lorne.

Good to see you as well Jim.

Hang in there, you have been an excellent job

Just learned after eight days Marco is a Fort Macleod town councillor . How does he reconcile his illegal actions with his oath to the queen? No wonder he won't communicate with me.

While I understand your frustrations, it was not him who decided it was a good idea to drive a semi across the highway and block it.

Thankfully he was able to convince some of his group to unblock but we have a long ways to go just yet
